Question was asked as to where the arti money was going to. Mentioned to all present that this information will be available on the website in due course once the committee has decided where this would be. Total arti income was £870 split with Matya.

No other question regarding the account were raised.

AOB:

Discussed that we plan to do joint events with Matya due to low turnouts from LPSoL.

Thanks to Mahesh Patel for offering free service regarding auditing the accounts.

5. VOTING MATTERS

No committee members stepped down and agreed to support for another year. An appeal for trustees was and more members was made.

6. President closing speech.

- President said a few words of thanks to the new committee and encouraged all attendees to continue to support and give ideas to the new management committee.
